Press Release on Compliance with Presidential Orders

SPLA GHQs takes this opportunity to inform the people of South Sudan and the region that the former Chief of General Staff, Gen. Paul Malong had finally complied with the Presidential Order on the need to reduce and hand over additional bodyguards he has had at his residence. Gen. Paul handed over eighteen of his bodyguards and all heavy machine guns which included:

1. One 12.7 Machine gun;
2. Several Rocket Propelled Grenade Launchers (RPGs) and
3. Several PKM light machine guns.

The Eighteen Bodyguards reported themselves on 13/11/2017 to the HQs of Tiger Division for redeployment. The former Army Chief is expected to meet with the Commander In Chief of SPLA and Supreme Commander of all organized Forces during the week.
