SUBJECT: NATIONAL PRAYER DAY, FRIDAY, 10TH MARCH 2017

You must all be aware that on the initiative of H.E. Salva Kiir Mayardit, President of the Republic of South Sudan, it has been decided that Friday, 10th March 2017 shall be dedicated to national prayers throughout the country.

After consultation with the Acting Minister of Labour, Public Service and Human Resource Development, Hon. Awut Deng Acuil, I am required to inform you that Friday, 10th March 2017 shall be a holiday throughout the Republic in order to make it easy for everybody to attend the said prayers.

United Nations Agencies, Diplomatic Missions in Juba, International and Indigenous Non-Governmental Organizations, Private Businesses and other employers are specially requested to allow their South Sudanese employees to attend these prayers which are scheduled to run from 6 am to 6 pm.

Please accept the assurances of my highest consideration.
