6th June 2018

PRESS RELEASE

South Sudan National Revenue Authority Imposition of Tax on Pension Funds

It has come to the notice of the South Sudan Revenue Authority that a Circular number 1/2018 dated 24th May, 2018, and issued by the Ministry of Labour Public Service and Human Resource Development to all NGOs and the Private Sector on the above subject.

The South Sudan Revenue wishes to inform the General Public especially the NGOs and Private Sector businesses that, in accordance with Section 58 (1) (d) and 2 (a), Pension Incomes and contributions by the Employer Funded Pension Schemes authorized by the Republic of South Sudan are Taxable.

Furthermore, the public is hereby informed that all matters relating to Non-Oil Tax Revenue Administration must be referred to the office of the Commissioner General for appropriate technical and legal application of the Taxation Act, 2009.

This press release in effect has nullified the Circular issued by the Ministry of Labour Public Service and Human Resource Development. Any inconveniences that the Circular may have caused is deeply regretted.

The public is therefore advised to comply with the directive in this press release in accordance with relevant provisions in the Taxation Act, 2009.

Any questions relating to the above subject should be directed to the Office of the Commissioner General, South Sudan Revenue Authority opposite National Security-Jebal
