CIRCULAR NO: RSS/NRA/J/46/DCG/21/001 PUBLICATION DATE: 2nd JULY 2021

RE: CIRCULAR ON THE LAUNCHING OF THE E-TAX SYSTEM

This circular is issued by the National Revenue Authority (NRA) of the Republic of South Sudan for the information and guidance of the general public, taxpayers and tax practitioners in line with extant of tax laws of the Republic of South Sudan particularly section 17 of the taxation act 2009 as amended. This instant circular seeks to confirmed the previous circular seeking to inform the taxpayers of the launch of the new E-TAX system in South Sudan.

1.0 Introduction:

The National Revenue Authority has embarked on mass taxpayer registration, as mandated by section 17 of the Taxation Act and directed that all taxpayers register for new Taxpayer Identification Numbers (TIN) on the E-TAX website (www.ntax.nra.gov.ss), without charge. The new TIN replaces all previous TINs, which shall be phased out in gradual manner. This notice serves to inform all that it is mandatory for all taxpayers to use the E-TAX platform effective 1st July, 2021 for declaring and filing returns, paying taxes or accessing other tax-related services and seeking or obtaining Tax Clearance Certificate.

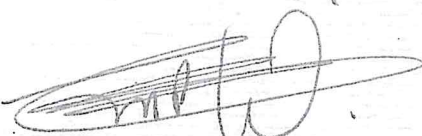

2.0 Clarification

In view of the above, it is hereby clarified to all government authorities, tax practitioners, international organization, members of the diplomatic community, taxpayers and the general public should embark on this new initiative effectively via WWW.ETAX.NRA.GOV.SS with immediate effect

3.0 Enquiries
